

25 NOV-10 DEC

Stand up for 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence starting on 25th November, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, and running until 10 December, Human Rights Day.

For more information and campaigns go to <https://acrath.org.au/take-action/16-days/>
Or contact networks@acrath.org.au

@ACRATH

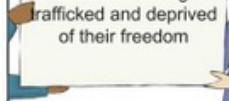

@ACRATHumans

@ACRATHAU

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
					NOV 25 Women and girls who make up the majority of people who are trafficked in our world	26 Girls and young women forced into marriage in Australia and globally
27 Seasonal workers exploited in Australia's agricultural industries and those seeking redress	28 Women trafficked from Asia into forced labour and sexual exploitation in Australia	29 Women who make our clothes, from the cotton pickers to the sewers. They should be paid a living wage. 	30 Girls forced into labour from a young age	DEC 1 Health workers caring for people who have been trafficked	2 Women and girls working to eradicate all forms of human trafficking 	3 Girls who experience online sexual abuse
4 Women rebuilding their lives after being trafficked and deprived of their freedom 	5 Young trafficked women willing to share their stories of exploitation and healing in order to offer hope to others	6 ACRATH women who offer companionship in Australia to survivors of trafficking and their children	7 Leaders in politics, religion, education, civil society and healthcare working to eliminate all forms of human trafficking 	8 Young people advocating for the rights of children forced to work in the mining and textile industries or in the production of chocolate and cosmetics	9 Women and men who educate others in their homes, schools and the wider community to bring an end to the violence of human trafficking	10 Children at risk of being trafficked after fleeing conflict or natural disasters in their countries.

Human trafficking is an extreme form of violence against women and girls. Here we offer you a focus for each of the 16 days of activism.

1. Join us
2. Reflect with us
3. Take action with us