

From National Indigenous TV

Referendum and Voice on the agenda for a new NITV program on eve of January 26

On the eve of January 26, a special NITV and SBS program Sunset Ceremony, will delve into the national conversation around a Referendum and an Indigenous Voice to Parliament.

Broadcast from Yurong Point on Gadigal Country (Mrs Macquarie's Chair, Sydney) and hosted by Whadjuk Noongar woman Narelda Jacobs (NITV's The Point, Studio 10, 10 News First Middy) and Wuthathi and Meriam man John Paul Janke (NITV's The Point).

Sunset Ceremony will be broadcast on Wednesday, January 25 at 7.30pm on NITV and SBS, and simulcast on 10 Play before being encored at 6am on Thursday 26 January on 10 and at 12pm on NITV and SBS.

During the two-hour program, prominent First Nations voices will reflect on what January 26 means to them.

Special guests will include:

- Television presenter, actor and Yamatji man Ernie Dingo AM (Going Places with Ernie Dingo)
- Noongar-Yamatji woman, LGBTIQ+ and mental health advocate, author and reality TV star Brooke Blurton
- Actor, producer, director and Samu and Koedal man Aaron Fa'aoso (Strait to the Plate)
- Widjabul Wia-bal woman of the Bundjalung Nation and SBS Elder in Residence Rhoda Roberts AO
- Respected Gadigal Elder and cultural representative for the Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council, Uncle Allan Madden
- Former investment analyst from the Quandamooka peoples of Minjerribah and Director of From the Heart Dean Parkin
- And descendant of the Kabi Kabi Nation and the Gurang Gurang Nation of Queensland and executive member of the Indigenous Peoples Organisation, Pastor Raymond Minniecon