LAUDATO SI' LENT

Introduction

During the Stations of the Cross, we retrace Christ's steps by enacting the biblical record of his Passion, with each station commemorating a stage in Christ's journey to crucifixion. The Ecological Way of the Cross puts the suffering of Christ's Passion in our time by relating it to the suffering of the earth and the poor.

Jesus falls for the first time

We adore You, oh Christ, and we bless You! Because by Your holy cross, You have redeemed the world.

By Fr. Pawel Drobot, CSsR (The Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer)

PRAYER

We pray for our sisters and brothers hidden in the darkness of modern slavery, in factories and homes across the world, forced to work in inhumane conditions and deprived of their freedom. Help us to remember those who suffer for our unsustainable lifestyles and give us a change of heart so that this evil may be rooted from our world. Amen.

PRAYER

Lord, as You have fallen a second time, so do we fall to our indifferent consumerism. Help us, we pray, to be conscious of our purchasing decisions, to choose what is ethically and sustainably made, and to stand up for those who carry the heavy burden of unjust economic policies. Amen.

Like the women of Jerusalem, we weep for our children who will bear the brunt of our environmental destruction. God of life, help us to resist the culture of death that seeks only its own gain and to the detriment of all other living beings, including those that are yet to live. Amen.

Lord, the weight of the cross caused You to fall a third time. We, too, daunted by unbridled exploitation, fall to anguish and frustration. Give us the strength to rise again and again in our fight for social and climate justice. Amen.

PRAYER

Jesus, You were stripped of Your clothing and dignity. So, too, the earth is stripped of its minerals and nutrient rich topsoil. Lord Jesus, our misguided models of progress have blinded us to the wonder and sacred destiny of Your creation. Conflict over natural resources are the nails with which we crucify You over and over again. Forgive us our greed and awaken Your abiding presence in us. Amen.

PRAYER

Lord, even as we witness the extinction of entire species, help us to hold on to our faith, hope, and love. Just as Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus stepped up to care for Your lifeless body, give us the courage to be a voice for the unheard. Use us as instruments of peace for all creation. Amen.

PRAYER

Creator of all things, to You nothing is impossible; to You all are beautiful and precious. Help us to see creation as You do. Help us to lay aside our differences and embrace each other as sisters and brothers. Amen.

Lord Jesus, open our eyes and hearts to Your passion and death still going on around us. Help us to see that You are condemned to death again in the extinction of species, that the weight of the cross You still carry is our consumerism and throwaway culture; that You are still dying with the victims of extreme weather, war, conflict, and our indifference. As Your passion continues throughout history and the world, give us the confidence and courage to be like those who comforted You on Your way to the cross – Veronica, Simon of Cyrene, Joseph of Arimathea, and Your most Blessed Mother.

AMEN
