Terms of Reference

Brigidine Safeguarding Reference Group Australia (BSRGA)

1. INTRODUCTION

These Terms of Reference set out the scope, functions, and membership for the Brigidine Safeguarding Reference Group Australia (BSRGA). The care, safety and wellbeing of children, young people, and adults at risk is a central and fundamental responsibility of all Brigidine Sisters and those who are employed by or volunteer with them. The BSRGA has been established to assist the Brigidine Southern Cross Community Leadership Team (BSCCLT) in addressing safeguarding matters, and to provide some stability over leadership changes, being a significant response to the Invitation and Call from the 2016 Congregational Forum that states:

“We are called in solidarity with others to extend and deepen our partnerships in a spirit of mutual respect and service fostering a sense of dignity and opportunity for all according to evolving needs”.

In addressing safeguarding matters, the Brigidine Sisters and the BSRGA acknowledge and respect the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child,¹ and in their decision making will ensure that the best interests of the child and/or the adult at risk shall be a primary consideration.² The Brigidine Sisters and the BSRGA also acknowledge and respect the Australian Governments’ National Principles for Child Safe Organisations³ and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and related standards.⁴
