Meet Jessie Taylor

Melbourne barrister and maker of the award-winning documentary "Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea". Jessie was also featured on "Australian Story" in July 2012.

What does it take to make someone become a "boat person"? Jessie and her friend Ali Reza Sadiqi travelled across Indonesia with a hidden camera, and interviewed 250 people to find the answer. In this acclaimed documentary, asylum-seekers themselves explain what made them choose this path.

Hear Jessie explain why she undertook this dangerous project
